Elba W&E Board votes to increase water rates

The Elba Water and Electric Board voted Monday night, March 24, during its regular monthly meeting to implement an increase of three percent (3%) on all water rates.

The new water rates for city and rural customers went into effect on April 1st. This will be reflected on the utility bill received/payable in May 2025 for April 2025 usage.

Officials said the Elba W&E Board had not increased water rates since October 1, 2023, but there were discussions by the previous board and current board members that "if rates were increased each year by the inflation rate, then hopefully it would prevent the need for a notable increase."

For most water customers the new 3% increase will cost less than one dollar per month. For example, a customer with minimum usage was paying $19.22 at the old rate, but with the 3% increase the charge will go up 58 cents making the monthly charge be $19.80 at the new rate. A customer using 3,000 gallons of water a month was paying $23.14 (old rate) and now will pay $23.84 with the increase.

Tapping fees also were increased. Those fees had not been increased since November 1, 2006. Tapping fees were increased March 24, 2025 to cover the cost of doing a water tap.

For a more detailed look at the new water rates being implemented by the Elba Water and Electric Board, see the advertisement will cost chart on Page 3 of today's paper.

Tim Johnson announces intent to seek election as Mayor of Elba

Tim Johnson this week announced his intent to seek election for the office of Mayor of Elba in this year's municipal election.

"I want to be Mayor of Elba because for the past several years I have been disappointed in the direction our city has gone," Johnson said. "It is time to set a new course and vision for the City of Elba. This course and vision are one that will renew our city's enthusiasm and pride and develop the full potential we all know Elba possesses."

Johnson said this would only be accomplished if it encompasses three basic elements of leadership: Transparency, Integrity and Motivation.

"By using the experience, I have gained during my business career in both the public and the private sectors, as Mayor, I will bring the leadership and administrative skills to set this course as well as oversee the daily operations of our city," he said. "You may ask, who I am and what is my interest in setting this course for Elba? I am a native of Elba, a graduate of Elba High School, and I married my high school sweetheart and classmate, the former Lisa Smith.

Tim Johnson

After graduating from college and starting their professional careers in Montgomery, Tim and Lisa chose to return to Elba to raise their family in the hometown they love. During this time, they have made time and monetary investments in Elba.

"Over the past 35 years, Lisa and I have volunteered numerous hours on various committees, boards and causes working for the betterment of Elba," Johnson said. "We also have demonstrated our belief in Elba by investing in business and property. I believe if Elba prospers, all citizens of Elba will benefit."

Outside of business and civic activities, the Johnsons are active members of Elba Methodist Church where Tim has served in various capacities. He currently is the Chair of Church Council.

Tim and Lisa have two adult sons, two daughters-in-law, and a spoiled dachshund.

"As we move forward with this campaign, I would like to answer your questions, hear your concerns and talk about a solution to benefit all the citizens of Elba," Johnson said. "I may be reached at 334-303-9840 or my campaign email tim.johnsonformayor@gmail.com."

He continued, "I want to be the Mayor of Elba. The promise I will make as your mayor is that my administration will serve with Transparency, Integrity, and Motivation (TIM) to ensure Elba reaches its full potential."

The Elba Municipal Election will be held Tuesday, Aug. 26, 2025.

Local emergency responders are shown above working the scene of a two-vehicle accident Friday afternoon, March 28, just after 3 p.m. in the Curtis Community of Coffee County. This accident was at the intersection of U.S. Hwy. 84 and Alabama Hwy. 141. As shown above, a Ford SUV overturned in the accident after colliding with another vehicle in the intersection. There were injuries reported with this accident, and one person was airlifted from the scene. Both vehicles had out of state license plates - each with a Florida license plate.

Troy University Bass Fishing Team of Padgett/Pemberton in Top Ten

When the calendar rolled over to 2025, the Troy University Bass Fishing Team was looking at more tournaments and more challenges on the water.

The team headed to take on the famed Lake Okeechobee. Clewiston, Fla., one of the most recognizable names in bass fishing. It has long been a big bass factory.

Although several years of hurricanes have created issues, the Florida Fish and Wildlife continues with their efforts to create ideal fishing conditions.

On Jan. 29 and 30, six Troy University teams fished Lake O in the Strike King Bassmaster Series presented by Bass Pro Shops. Day 1 all teams weighed in and all, but one, had their five-fish limit. Day 2 was not as productive; they were disappointed but not defeated.

Two weeks following the Okeechobee adventures, the Troy team headed back to Florida to Lake Seminole, a spectacular 37,500-acre lake that borders Florida, Georgia, and Alabama. On Feb. 14, they fished the Abu Garcia College Fishing presented by YETI. Only four teams represented Troy University.

Max Hondorp and Ridge Faircloth, native Floridians, finished the highest of any of the Troy team members; as they said, this was their "home pond." LSU Shreveport took home the winning trophy.

Definitely in a slump but anticipating better results the Troy team headed to back to Alabama to Logan Martin Lake for the second tournament on the Southern Collegiate Bass Series presented by Alabama B.A.S.S. Nation, Feb. 23rd.

All six teams launched their boats from Lincoln Landing, Lincoln, Ala. Despite the chilly weather, two of the Troy teams - Padgett and Pemberton and Hondorp and Faircloth finished in the top 25. This finish allowed these two teams to garner some much-needed AOY [Angler of Year] points.

Moving forward and nearing springtime, the Troy team blasted off at Wind Creek, Lake Martin, on March 16th. This was stop number three of the Southern Collegiate Bass presented by Alabama B.A.S.S. Nation. At the end

TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

I am a disgruntled senior citizen who has often been defined as “grumpy” and “abrasive,” but in reality, I am a very nice person—when I get to go fishing.

Nothing puts me in a better mood than a day on the lake, but it has been, I believe, more than one year since the Coffee County Public Lake became no longer “public.” The access road is closed, and as far as I know the improvements for which the closure was necessary haven’t even begun.

I have contacted the county, the state, the city, and either the person I talked to candidly confessed not to know when or if the lake would be reopened to the public, assured me that it would be reopened “soon,” or advised me to contact this or that branch of government.

The last I heard from the state is that it’s now the City of Elba that has obtained a contract or lease from the state, and it would begin the work “soon.” It is spring, the fish are biting, and the lake is still closed.

If it is the City of Elba that has the ball in its court now, why is it sitting on it instead of kicking it toward the goal?

I went to the lake this afternoon. The gate was still closed. No machinery was present, no workers—nothing. I have a feeling that the “soon” I heard of is comparable to the promise of the $5,000 that DOGE should return “soon” to every taxpayer... My wife is ready to kick me out of the house. My cats hiss at me. Even my chickens avoid me. I am getting grumpier by the minute. I need to fish.

I live three minutes away by car from the lake. This makes it even worse. How long will I have to wait? I am seventy-six, and I am way past the Biblical “three score and ten.” I am not into posthumous fishing, unless my wife cuts me up for bait instead of burying me.

I’ll bet I am not the only one who feels the way I do about the congenital paralysis of our elected politicians when it comes to doing something really useful for the people, but since most people are not as grumpy and abrasive as I am, they are reluctant to give public vent to their frustrations—but then take their sweet revenge at the polls as it happened on November 5th, 2024.

So—whoever is responsible for the “improvements” and the reopening of lake—get off your duff and just do it! And if you find me on the lakeshore while I am fishing, you may even ask the lake manager, “Who’s that nice old man sitting over there? He even offered me a beer and appeared to be really enjoying himself. I am so glad we reopened the lake!”

Windy Thoughts

with Linda Hodge, Publisher

We hope all students and teachers enjoyed their Spring Break, and we are very glad that none of “our folks” were caught in the scary incident that happened last Saturday night at Pier Park in Panama City Beach, Florida! When the news broke that a shooting had taken place at the very popular spot at the beach, we immediately began scrolling social media hoping to not find a post where any locals were caught up in the middle of it. Thank goodness we never heard of anyone from the local area being there at the time of the shooting.

This is the second year in a row - that we know of - for the popular beach destination to have to deal with “out of control” visitors that wreak havoc on Panama City Beach. Based on information released by the local authorities and residents it seems these folks go to the beach with the intent to cause as much trouble and chaos as they can while there. Our little mind cannot come up with any reason for it other than these folks just have no respect for others. Not only is it a shame the folks at Panama City Beach have to deal with the mess over and over, but it also is unfortunate that others who go to the beach just to have fun must also now worry about it too.

We hope the authorities there can figure out some way to stop those with ill-intent in the future, although we are not sure how that will be able to do that since PCB is a tourist destination year-round. But, we would love to know that they are able to stop mess like last weekend’s shooting from happening again so that those of us who actually go there for fun and relaxation can do that in peace!

The Elba Chamber of Commerce is planning to host a ribbon cutting and open house at our 512 Davis St W location for The Elba Clipper this Friday, April 4, at 2 p.m. We hope you can come join us! We would love to take a few minutes to thank you personally for your continued support!

of the day, the University of Alabama walked away with the win.

Although Troy University did not have a winner, after all points for the season were tallied Team Padgett and Pemberton were in tenth place in Angler of the Year points. They are looking to jump up on the chart at their fourth and final stop for this season on the Southern Collegiate Bass Series in April at Lake Eufaula.

As most anglers agree, fishing may be the most humbling sport in which a person can participate. One day one is at the top of the hill and the next day one finds himself at the bottom of the hill. To become a champion, one must put each experience in the rear-view mirror, evaluate, learn, and move forward.

Grief Without Guilt: It's Not Your Fault

Grief carries with it a multitude of conflicting emotions. One of the most overpowering is the feeling of guilt. Those who have lost a loved one often find themselves struggling with the idea that their loss is somehow their own fault - that there's something they could have said or done to prevent their loved one from dying.

Sometimes, feelings of grief can be situated in something real. All of us make mistakes, and we can say or do things that hurt the people we love. The feelings of guilt you experience during the mourning process may stem from a memory of mistakes you made in the past.

Just as often, though, feelings of guilt are less rational. As you grieve, you may talk yourself into the notion that you could have been there for your loved one or could have helped them receive a different kind of medical care. The bottom line is guilt and grief go hand in hand - but what can you do about it?

The first step is simply acknowledging the way you feel; guilt is an emotion, and the best way to handle any emotion is to first validate it.

Consider what your guilt is really about. Reflect on the idea that we all crave order, and your guilt may simply be a subconscious way to make some sense of your loved one's death. Find someone you can talk to about your feelings of guilt; this may be a close friend or it may be a therapist.

As you think, talk, and process, work your way toward a place of self-forgiveness.

If your guilt is irrational, you will hopefully have people in your life who will tell you so, encouraging you to move on. And if it's based in something real, you can seek a place where you either make amends or discover a new perspective - learning and growing from your painful experience.

STATE OF INDIANA
IN THE DEKALB SUPE-RIOR COURT II
COUNTY OF DEKALB
SS:
CAUSE NUMBER:
17D02-2412-AD-12

IN RE: THE ADOPTION OF:
EMBERLEIGH RENEE
SUGGS
Minor Child.

NOTICE OF ADOPTION
James DeBoer is notified that a Petition for Adoption of a child, named Ember-leigh Renee Suggs, born to Zoe Suggs on February 8, 2021, was filed in the office of the Clerk of DeKalb Superior Court II, 100 South
Main Street, Auburn, Indiana 46706. The petition for adoption alleges that the consent to adoption of Em-berleigh Renee Suggs is not required because James De-Boer is unfit to be a parent, has abandoned Emberleigh Renee Suggs for at least six months immediately preceding the filing of this petition, has for a period of at least one year failed without justifiable cause to communicate with Emberleigh Renee Suggs significantly when able to do so, has for a period of at least one year knowingly failed to provide for the care and support of Emberleigh Renee Suggs
when able to do so as required by law or judicial decree, and the best interests of Emberleigh Renee Suggs would be served if the court dispensed without the consent of James DeBoer.
If James DeBoer seeks to contest the adoption of the child, James DeBoer must file a motion to contest the adoption in accordance with I.C. 31-19-10-1 in the above-named court not later than thirty (30) days after the date of service of this notice. If James DeBoer does not file a motion to contest the adoption within thirty (30) days after service of this notice, the above-named court will hear and determine the petition for adoption. The consent to adoption of James DeBoer will be irrevocably implied and James DeBoer will lose the right to contest either the adoption or the validity of James DeBoer's implied consent to the adoption. No statement made to James DeBoer relieves James De-Boer of James DeBoer's obligations under this notice.

This notice complies with I.C. 31-19-4.5-3 but does not exhaustively set forth a person's legal obligations under the Indiana adoption statutes. A person being served with this notice should consult the Indiana adoption statutes.

What does the Bible say about... The Christian's Calling?

Article written by Douglas Williams

"I, therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you to walk worthy of the calling with which you were called" (Ephesians 4:1).

"Therefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling" (Hebrews 3:1).

"For whoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Romans 10:13; Joel 2:32; Acts 2:21).

"Arise and be baptized and wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Lord" (Acts 22:16).

People are called by the gospel to become Christians (2 Thessalonians 2:14), and as Christians we have a "heavenly calling" that involves our walking "worthy of the calling with which you were called."

What does it mean to call on the Lord to be saved? Obviously, it does not mean to pray for salvation by calling the Lord's name because Jesus said, "Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of my Father in heaven" (Matthew 7:21). We see then that to call on the Lord means to obey what He has told us to do.

To be forgiven of sin and prepare to go to heaven, we must:

1. Believe in Jesus as God's Son (John 8:24);
 2. Repent of our sins (Luke 13:3);
 3. Confess our faith in Jesus as God's Son (Matthew 10:32-33);
 4. Be baptized into Christ (Acts 2:38; Romans 6:3; Galatians 3:27);
 5. Live as faithful children of God.
- Jesus said, "Be faithful until death, and I will give you a (the) crown of life" (Revelation 2:10).

What's in a Name?

A line from William Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet has been often quoted: What's in a name? That which we call a rose by any other name would smell as sweet. Perhaps, but there is more to a rose than its fragrance. Names mean something: they describe, define, and delineate. When we hear the word, rose, we think of smell (as Shakespeare did), but we also think of shape, petal formation, colors, leaf structure, and even thorns! Names are important to each of us: our own, those of others with whom our lives intertwined as well as the identity of each of the "things" with which we must deal in life. So it was that Moses raised questions of identity when God confronted him at the burning bush. "Who am I that I should go on this mission?" "Whom shall I say has sent me to deliver Israel?" Moses' first question raised the issue of his identity and responsibility to God and Israel. God's answer was indirect: Knowing who we are is of Secondary importance of Knowing who God is. Knowing God put both our place and our purpose into proper perspective. Knowing who God is determines how we will deal with others - whether we choose to destroy, ignore, or serve them. The "I am" cares for others; those who know him will also. -- C.R.B.

Our entire family got together for a few days during spring break down at the beach and while I did get the chance to sleep in a couple of mornings, one of the highlights was a family boat ride around Ono Island and then to Flor-Bama for lunch. It may take me a week to get over my week off, but anytime we can all get together for a few days is truly a blessing.

For what it is worth....

 The Elba Tigers got a much-needed win over Samson during the spring break to snap their six-game losing streak and hopefully the win will give the Tigers a spark they need with over a month left on the schedule. Elba's roster is still filled with youth and inexperience every time Coach Luker fills it out before a game, but after 13 games everyone on the roster has experience, and should be ready to be competitive every time they take the field. I may be wrong, but I still believe the Tigers will log their share of wins this season and after a slow start will go out with a bang. As for the Lady Tigers, the girls took spring break off after a disappointing 4-9 start and should be chomping at the bits to get back on the field as the meat of the area schedule arrives. The team began the season with seven starters back from last year's region and were expected to challenge for an area title, and while their record may not show it, I still think this group has way too much talent to struggle and that it will catch fire soon and burn some folks along the way.

 I was looking around the GameChanger app last week and after strolling through area teams am convinced that if you have a son that likes to play baseball the place for him to be may just be New Brockton. The Gamecocks fielded a middle school, junior varsity and varsity team this season and the three teams combined have already played a total of 42 games, with all three teams posting at least eight wins and none of the teams having a losing record. The teams play almost non-stop at one level or the other and jeep their fans busy. However, the players on all the teams get to play, and that is what being on a team is all about. Other items of interest were the fact the varsity and junior varsity at Kinston carried a combined record of 39-8 into spring break; that of the Zion Chapel Lady Rebels nine losses two came to 3A defending state champion Opp, with the others coming to 4A Dale County, 2A defending state champion Wicksburg, 7A power Enterprise, twice to 2A perennial power G.W. Long, 5A Headland, and 5A power Houston Academy. Don't let their record fool ya, these girls know how to play and don't plan on hanging up their cleats any time soon. Yep, we still have a lot of fun left this season as baseball and softball fans.

 I was told many years ago that the NFL stands for 'Not for long,' and while that has proven to be true many times over, a new infamous three-letter term - NIL, may actually stand for 'No-one is loyal!' The folks up at Troy University found that new definition to be very true last week as four starters from the 2025 Troy Trojans that won the Sun Belt Conference and advanced to the NCAA tournament announced they had entered the transfer portal. Forwards Jackson Fields and Myles Rigsby, along with Marcus Rigsby and Sun Belt Player of the Year Tayton Coneyway have entered the portal after the Trojans 76-57 loss to Kentucky in the first round of the tourney. Coneyway averaged 14.2 points and 4.6 rebounds to lead the Sun Belt in both categories, while Fields, a 6-8, junior, averaged 7.9 and 4.8 rebounds a game and led the Trojans with 26 blocked shots, Myles Rigsby, a 6-6, sophomore, averaged 12.2 points and 4.2 rebounds per game and scored 17 points in the loss to Kentucky, and Marcus Rigsby a 6-2, junior, averaged 6.9 points per game after spending the two previous years at Tyler Junior College. The loss of four starters will leave the Trojans with only returning starter in Dothan's Thomas Dowd. Troy posted a 23-11 record and won the conference tournament after sharing the regular season crown. It looks like the celebration for the historic season is officially over!

While the folks in Troy and no doubt upset, the reality of what the NIL has done to mid-majors like the Trojans has been evident for years. College basketball fans need only to look at the SEC, where Auburn standout and player of the year favorite Johni Broome came to the Tigers from Morehead State, Alabama All-American Mark Sears came to the Tide from Ohio University, Tennessee star Chaz Lanier became a Vol after a stop at North Florida, and Florida All-American Walter Clayton, Jr., headed to the Gators after a stop at Iona. Three starters from the 2023 Florida Atlantic 'Final Four' team now start at Arkansas, Florida and Michigan, while three former Belmont Bruins are now key players at Maryland, Ole Miss and Florida. NIL money has helped keep many players in college than taking a chance at the NBA, the G League or going overseas, and while that is good for most college fans, the fact that the rich only get richer is obvious this season as the 'Sweet 16' includes seven teams from the SEC, four from the Big Ten and Big 12, and one from the ACC. Cinderella didn't make it to the dance this year, and may not make it again except on very rare occasions.

What is the answer for the mid-majors? Of course, begin recruiting players from Division II teams, NAIA teams and maybe even head out of the country. I guess what we now have in the world of college sports is the new 'circle of life.'

 In closing.... There is a renewed excitement at New Brockton in the football program and that excitement will certainly hit a high level on May 16 when the Gamecocks travel to tangle with the Zion Chapel Rebels in a spring football game. The long time rivalry between the two cross-county rivals ended back in 2019 as the student population at New Brockton began to take off, and after the Gamecocks defeated the Rebels for the seventh straight year by a combined score of 342-19. So, even though it will only be a spring game, it will be a game both teams will use as a special reason to work a little extra hard during the days of spring. I know I already have the date circled on my calendar!

Elba Tigers outscore Samson 11-10

The Elba Tigers scored four runs in both the fourth and fifth innings to erase a 6-3 deficit and held on late to outscore the Samson Tigers 11-10, last Tuesday afternoon, in Elba.

Elba grabbed an early lead when Jay Wilson drew a leadoff walk and eventually scored on a one-out bases loaded walk to Powell Bane. However, the Tigers missed a chance to take command as they left the bases loaded and had to settle for a 1-0 first inning advantage.

Samson bunched together three hits in the top of the third to pull even at 1-1, but the Tigers came right back in the bottom of the inning and plated two runs to go back on top 3-1. One-out singles by Brady Johnson and Easton McKelvy sparked the Elba rally, while Matthew McCart delivered a two-run single with two outs as the Tigers regained the lead.

Samson combined four hits with two Elba errors in the top of the fourth to grab a 6-3 lead, only to see Elba once again rally and scored four runs to move back ahead 7-6. Dylan Holley and hit by a pitch and Earl Tolentino reached on a single to open the inning and both scored on a single by Jaden Baker, while an rbi double by Jay Wilson drove in Baker, and Wilson later scored on a passed ball as the Tigers went back on top.

Samson stranded two base runners in the top of the fifth, while the Tigers scored four runs in the bottom of the frame to up their lead to 11-6. Consecutive walks to Hakeem Scott, Dylan Holley and Earl Tolentino to open the inning loaded the bases with no outs, while a one-out walk to Jay Wilson allowed Holley to walk home, followed by a two-run single by Brady Johnson and another bases loaded walk, this time to Powell Bane, forced in Wilson as Elba finally appeared to take command.

Samson combined two hits with a walk and an error to cut the lead to 11-7 in the top of the sixth, and then plated three runs on two hits, two errors and one walk with two outs in the seventh to pull within 11-10 with runners on second and third, only to see a soft pop up land in the glove of Jaden Baker as the Tigers survived the inning to claim the wild 11-10 win.

Brady Johnson had 2 hits, scored 1 run and had 2 rbi's to lead Elba at the plate, while Jay Wilson added 1 hit, scored 3 runs and ad 2 rbi's; Matthew McCart added 1 hit and 2 rbi's; Earl Tolentino and Jaden Baker both added 1 hit and scored 2 runs; Easton McKelvy added 1 hit and scored 1 run; and, Dylan Holley scored 2 runs.

Powell Bane pitched five innings and allowed one earned run on 11 hits, with four strikeouts, to pick up the win on the mound, while Easton McKelvy got the save as he tossed two innings and allowed no earned runs on four hits and two walks.

Tigers blanked 5-0

The Elba Tigers hosted the Kinston Bulldogs last Tuesday afternoon in the second game of a doubleheader and failed to get on the scoreboard in a 5-0 loss to the Kinston Bulldogs.

Elba left runners on the corners in the first inning after singles by Jay Wilson and Powell Bane, while Kinston plated two runs in the second and three in the third to grab an early 5-0 lead.

A two-out infield single by Brant McCollough gave the Bulldogs a 1-0 lead, and McCollough later scored on an Elba error to open up a 2-0 advantage. The third inning was the big inning for Kinston, with a key hit being an rbi double by Easton Parker, while the Bulldogs added two more runs thanks to a walk and an Elba error.

Elba stranded two runners on base in the bottom of the third after two-out singles by Brady Johnson and Easton McKelvy, but managed only two more hits the remained of the game as Kinston never lost command on the mound to hand the Tigers the 5-0 loss.

Powell Bane had 2 hits to lead Elba at the plate, while Jay Wilson, Brady Johnson and Earl Tolentino all added 1 hit. Johnson and Wilson combined to pitch seven innings and allowed two earned runs on eight hits and six walks, while striking out seven Bulldog batters.

Judd Green had 2 hits and scored 1 run to lead Kinston at the plate, while Brant McCollough and Easton Parker both added 1 hit, scored 1 run and had 1 rbi; JD Hart and Marcus Free both added 1 hit and scored 1 run; and, Drew Branch and Colby Tew both added 1 hit. Jon Simmons and Easton Parker combined to pitch seven innings and allowed no earned runs on six hits, while striking out 17 Tiger batters.
